Attorney for Defendant
MYRA MINKS

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MYRA BOLECHE MINKS,

Defendant.

Case No.: 2:22-cr-0137 JAM

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR TEMPORARY RELEASE

The parties to this action, Plaintiff United States of America, by and through Assistant United States Attorney Justin Lee, and Defendant Myra Minks, by and through her attorney Todd D. Leras, request that the Court issue an order granting Ms. Minks a temporary release from the Sacramento County Main Jail, Sacramento, California, on May 15, 2025, for no longer than the period from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The purpose of the temporary release is to allow Ms. Minks to attend, via videoconferencing equipment, a continuing family law proceeding and mediation in Alameda County Superior Court (Case No. AF15798525, entitled County of ORDER FOR TEMPORARY RELEASE

1 Alameda v. Jermaine Boddie; hereafter referred to as the “family law proceeding”). Ms. Minks
2 has twice attended prior hearings in the family law proceeding pursuant to temporary release
3 orders without incident.

5 The period of temporary release is required to allow roundtrip travel from the Sacramento
6 County Jail to the conference room in defense counsel’s office, located at 455 Capitol Mall,
7 Suite 802, Sacramento, California. The purpose of the family law proceeding is to address Ms.
8 Minks’ request for an order directing that she be allowed continued and regular telephone contact
9 with the minor son she shares with Mr. Boddie. Ms. Minks is presently allowed to have 10 telephone contact with her minor son while in pretrial custody in this matter. Mr. Boddie is 11 seeking to restrict or terminate that telephone contact in the family law proceeding. Ms. Minks is 12 very close to her son, and the potential restriction or loss of telephone contact with him
13 represents a significant loss to her. She therefore wants to attend the family law hearing and 14 mediation to be heard on the matter of contact with her son. Mr. Boddie has twice failed to 15 appear for the family law proceeding, requiring that the matter be continued to ensure that he has 16 an opportunity to be heard.

19 Ms. Minks will be transported from the jail to defense counsel’s office, as she has been 20 on two previous occasions, by Defense Investigator Fred Scoville. Investigator Scoville will 21 remain with her in defense counsel’s office conference room while she attends the family law
22 proceeding and mediation via computer videoconferencing equipment as approved by the 23 Alameda County Superior Court. Investigator Scoville will have exclusive control of the 24 videoconferencing equipment. He will immediately transport Ms. Minks back to the Sacramento
25 County Main Jail upon the earlier of completion of the family law hearing and mediation or by 26 5:00 p.m. Defense counsel will meet with Ms. Minks to discuss preparation for her scheduled

28 ORDER FOR TEMPORARY RELEASE

1 sentencing hearing (set for August 5, 2025 before Senior United States District Judge John A.
2 Mendez) and to discuss sentencing mitigation investigation during those periods when she is not
3 participating in the family law proceeding or the mediation hearing.

5 The parties stipulate and agree that Ms. Minks be temporarily released from the
6 Sacramento County Jail to the third-party custody of Investigator Fred Scoville on May 15, 2025,
7 for no longer than 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. She shall be returned to custody immediately upon
8 completion of the family law proceeding.

9 Assistant U.S. Attorney Justin Lee has approved of this request and authorized Todd D.
10 Leras via email to sign it on his behalf.

28 ORDER FOR TEMPORARY RELEASE

ORDER

BASED ON THE REPRESENTATIONS OF THE PARTIES, and good cause appearing to exist, the Court orders the following:

1. Myra Boleche Minks (DOB: xx-xx-1978; X Reference Number 3536366) shall be released from the Sacramento County Jail in Sacramento, California, on a “Temporary Release” on Thursday, May 15, 2025, for no longer than the period from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Defense Investigator Fred Scoville (California Private Investigator License Number PI13810) shall serve as third-party custodian.
2. During the Temporary Release, Myra Minks shall remain with the third-party custodian at all times.
3. Investigator Scoville shall transport Myra Minks via car directly from the Sacramento County Jail to the conference room at her defense counsel’s office, located at 455 Capitol Mall, Suite 802, Sacramento, California. Investigator Scoville shall retain control of the videoconferencing equipment to allow Myra Minks’ remote appearance at the family law court hearing and mediation in Alameda County Superior Court Family Law Case No. AF15798525.
